NEW MOSAIC BRAND LAUNCHED TO DELIVER HIGH QUALITY STAFFING SERVICES SOLUTIONS

SKILLED Group last night launched Mosaic, a recruitment specialist for the executive, professional and business support sectors. Formed from the amalgamation of Trinity, Premium, Partners in Computing and Actuarial Appointments (formerly divisions of Catalyst Recruitment) and Teamwork (division of SKILLED), Mosaic provides permanent, contract and temporary staffing solutions.

According to Joe Di Iorio, General Manager, Mosaic clients and candidates will benefit from Mosaic's focus on personalised service:

"Recruitment is about developing strong relationships with clients and candidates and really understanding their needs. With skills shortages affecting most industries and sectors, it is all about the best fit. We take the time to really understand what our candidates are looking for, the company culture they want to work in and what motivates and challenges them. We take a similar approach with our clients to understand the organisation's culture, business and objectives. This enables us to find the best fit for our clients and candidates," Joe said.

Mosaic currently operates across Sydney, Melbourne and Brisbane and has specialist recruiters in banking and accounting; finance and insurance; government; manufacturing, logistics and supply chain; information technology; mining; sales and marketing and utilities.

Speaking at the launch, Greg Hargrave, SKILLED Group's Managing Director and CEO said:

"Mosaic has an exciting future. While it is a new brand, Mosaic's management and recruitment consultants have a wealth of experience backed by SKILLED Group's expertise in the staffing services sector."
